Cincinnati, OH
Tel: (513) 977-8677

Eric is an experienced trial lawyer and trusted advisor to businesses. He has extensive first-chair trial experience in federal and state courts and has tried numerous jury trials to successful verdicts. Eric has secured significant results for clients before juries, judges and arbitrators, and has successfully negotiated settlements in matters including or involving diverse areas of the law: products liability, noncompetition/trade secrets, class action consumer protection and securities litigation, intellectual property, health care, franchise, corporate control, real estate and construction. He has represented and counseled clients of all types and sizes, including Procter & Gamble, Wendy's, Kraft Foods Group, Total Quality Logistics, Bank of America, Graeter's Ice Cream Co., the University of Cincinnati, and closely-held companies and individuals in various industries.

In addition to his trial practice, Eric has unique experience in the business of sports. He has advised and represented multiple professional sports franchises, sports facility owners, university athletic departments, and athletes. His experience includes counseling and representing clients across a broad range of areas in which the law applies to the business of sports. These matters range from the defense of class action suits brought by NFL season ticket holders, to advice to college athletic departments on Title IX compliance, as well as eligibility disputes involving amateur athletes.

He also actively participates in a number of community and professional organizations. Eric just began a three-year term on the Ohio State Bar Association Board of Governors, representing District 1. He is a past president of the Cincinnati Bar Association, where he still serves on the Admissions and Grievance Committees. He also serves on the boards of the Volunteer Lawyers for the Poor Foundation; ArtsWave's Flow Advisory Board; the May Festival; the Cincinnati Law and Leadership Institute; and the Hamilton County Republican Party Judicial Selection Committee. Past service includes the boards of the Cincinnati Bar Foundation, the Miami University PreLaw Advisory Program, and the Hamilton County Public Defender Commission. Eric is a past recipient of the 40 Under Forty Award presented by the Business Courier and completed the Leadership Cincinnati program as part of Class XXXII. In 2013, Eric received the Teaching Excellence Award from the UC Law Alumni Association for his work as an adjunct professor at the University of Cincinnati College of Law, where he still teaches Sports Law each spring semester.

Experience

Unfair Competition Litigation

We represented our client and a number of individual employees in a lawsuit filed by a competitor. The competitor asserted claims for conspiracy, misappropriation of trade secrets, breach of non-compete agreements, tortious interference with contractual and business relations, breach of fiduciary duty, unfair competition, unjust enrichment, and violations of the Computer Fraud and Abuse Act. We tried the case for approximately two weeks in federal court before the parties settled the matter.
