Experience

Breach of Contract Allegations Relating to Loan/Insurance Agreement

Successfully represented Huntington National Bank and obtained summary judgment in a federal case involving allegations of breach of contract and statutory fraud. The summary judgment was affirmed by the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Development of Business Succession Plans

We have represented a number of small, family-owned businesses in drafting and implementing business succession plans. The plans enable the client to undergo efficient leadership and ownership transitions while also protecting the assets and interests of the business. We also have structured numerous partnership agreements as part of the business succession planning process.

Development of Urgent Care Business

Dinsmore & Shohl represented our client, MedExpress, in various commercial transactions totaling several million dollars each in connection with the development of their urgent care business. The client benefited from the use of our firm because of our practical approach and follow-up to assist in resolving problems early on.

Mineral Quiet Title Actions and Missing Owner Actions

We have represented Chesapeake Appalachia, LLC, a large national energy company that specializes in natural gas, in several quiet title and missing owner actions involving title to mineral properties.

Probate Assistance

Mr. Rogers has assisted dozens of fiduciaries with the administration of complex estates and trusts.

Quiet Title Action

We received summary judgment in a quiet title action relating to over 90 acres of oil and natural gas.

Quiet Title Action

We received summary judgment in a quiet title action relating to over 300 acres of mineral properties.
