From the Start ...

The equine industry is undoubtedly unique, encompassing both distinctive benefits and challenges. Evolving legislation, innovative technology and fragmented regulations have combined to present a number of obstacles for racetrack owners, account wagering companies, breeders, trainers and owners, and having the right legal counsel on your side to guide you can be the determining factor in your success.

Whether it's negotiating simulcasting agreements, forming racing partnerships or guiding account wagering companies through licensing procedures, having trusted and experienced legal counsel enables you to anticipate and overcome

... To the Finish

At Dinsmore, our Equine team provides clients with the unparalleled customer service, responsiveness and insight gained from extensive experience representing a variety of clients in the industry. Our team not only features the chair of the National Equine Law Conference, but also the former General Counsel of Gulfstream Park, enabling us to provide our clients with a unique perspective when it comes to equine law.

We have worked with a number of clients, both internationally and domestically, in guiding them through contract drafting and negotiations, racing and USEF hearings, the syndication and sale of stallions and bloodstock interests, licensing procedures and racing partnerships structuring and formation. Our passion for equine law is evident through our commitment to our clients and our desire to help them accomplish more.

Where We've Helped ...

Worked with national account wagering company to acquire various state licenses and ensure regulatory compliance to allow for continued operation of multi-million dollar business

Documentation of Syndication or sale of Stallions, including GHOSTZAPPER, AWESOME AGAIN, BIG BROWN, and WAR PASS

Advised international clients on current status of federal criminal and civil law and proposed legislation regarding legality of online poker, online casino gaming and pari-mutuel account wagering

Assisted client in purchase of interest in thoroughbred racetrack, including handling regulatory and state racing commission licensing issues for new owner

Drafted rules and regulations for fantasy handicapping tournaments, ensuring compliance with various state and federal laws, including the Unlawful Internet Gambling Enforcement Act

Wrote all major contracts including condition book and stall application for premier racetrack. Contracts ranged from operational contracts, including condition book and stall application, to general business contracts, such as food service and on-track veterinary agreements.

Our passion for equine law is evident through our commitment and our desire to help clients see the whole picture and accomplish more.
