Professionalism Committee

The Professionalism Committee of the Cincinnati Bar Association is charged with upholding the highest standards of integrity and honor in the legal profession. The committee strives to foster conduct by, and among, lawyers and judges, which enhances and supports professionalism. The Committee provides an ongoing focus on the broader mission of the CBA and on the law as a public profession. In an effort to support this mission, the committee sponsors the annual Take Your Adversary to Lunch program, offers speakers through the CBA's Speakers' Bureau, and coordinates CLE programs that offer a forum for discussion of professionalism issues. For more information, please contact Maria Palermo at mcpalermo@cincybar.org or (513) 699-1402.
