Pittsburgh, PA
Tel: (412) 230-8991

Adam focuses his practice on commercial litigation. His experience includes managing the day-to-day litigation activities for a Fortune 500 company in products liability matters and defending and advising businesses and individuals in construction claims, contractual disputes, premises liability actions, transportation accidents, and catastrophic personal injury suits. He also has served as lead counsel at arbitrations and mediations. Outside of the office, Adam enjoys volunteering his time in the community, including coaching youth sports and serving on the board of his local YMCA facility.
