Columbus, OH
Tel: (614) 628-6889

Andrew is an experienced litigator, trial attorney, and adviser who focuses his practice on the construction industry, business and commercial litigation, and professional liability. He represents individuals and businesses on matters involving breach of contract, shareholder disputes, breach of fiduciary duties, non-competition/non-solicitation agreements, trade secrets, employment disputes, tort-based claims, and other complex commercial claims. Similarly, he represents and counsels owners, developers, general contractors, subcontractors, material suppliers, design professionals, and insurance carriers in all facets of construction, from contract preparation and negotiation through claims handling and dispute resolution.

He appreciates the complexities of his clients' businesses and leverages his background in accounting with his business knowledge and legal expertise to provide practical and effective guidance so clients can achieve their goals and resolve issues efficiently. Andrew partners closely with his clients to understand their operations, learn their objectives, and facilitate a trusting relationship.
