Chandler assists clients in various industries to manage all aspects of employment-related litigation, including representing employers in state and federal courts, as well as before administrative agencies. Her practice focuses on defending companies and named individuals in discrimination, harassment, retaliation, wrongful discharge, tort, and contract lawsuits. Chandler is experienced in advising clients and litigating employment matters, including those involving Title VII, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, the Family Medical Leave Act, the National Labor Relations Act, state Human Rights Acts, and state wage-payment laws.

Chandler also has experience counseling clients through pre-litigation employment issues, conducting workplace trainings and investigations, and drafting employment policies and contracts. In each matter she handles, Chandler works closely with clients to understand their business and provide tailored guidance to comply with the law and best avoid risk.
