Lexington, KY
Tel: (859) 425-1030

Since 2007, David's practice has focused exclusively on tort and business litigation with a particular focus on health care and commercial litigation matters. He has extensive experience with personal injury and wrongful death litigation including medical malpractice, long-term care, transportation, non-profits, retail and hospitality, professional liability, utility, pharmaceutical, and product liability claims. David also handles matters involving contract, unfair competition, trade secrets, construction, real estate, securities, and oil and gas. He represents clients in the pre-litigation process, working closely to identify and achieve an effective resolution, even if that means going to trial. He has successfully represented businesses and professionals in multiple bench and jury trials, in arbitration, and before administrative tribunals.
