

Elizabeth Younger

Associate

elizabeth.younger@dinsmore.com

Covington, KY

Tel: (859) 431-7000

Elizabeth has experience serving as bond counsel to assist counties, cities, school districts, special taxing districts and other government related entities in the tax-exempt financing process to ensure efficiency and compliance. Her background includes a wide variety of municipal finance projects including municipal leasing programs, general obligation financings, revenue-backed financings, 501(c)(3) conduit transactions and pool financings.

She is on the Board of Directors for the Cincinnati YMCA and serves as chair of the YMCA Camp Ernst Branch Board. She is also active as a board overseer at Redwood, an organization that benefits children and adults with disabilities and is involved with the Fort Thomas Education Foundation.

Services

- Public Finance
- Economic Development
- Education - Public Finance
- Health Care - Public Finance
- Traditional Governmental Finance
- Public Utilities - Public Finance

Education

- University of Cincinnati College of Law (J.D., 2010)
- Elon University (B.A., 2006)
 - Public Administration and Political Science

Bar Admissions

- Kentucky
- Ohio

Affiliations/Memberships

- National Association of Bond Lawyers
- Kentucky Bar Association
- Ohio State Bar Association
- Cincinnati Bar Association

Experience

$1,735,000 County of Bourbon, Kentucky General Obligation Bonds, Series 2017 (Bond Counsel)

We served as bond counsel on a $17.3 million revenue bond issue to construct improvements at Scott High School in Kenton County, Kentucky. Utilizing an annually renewable lease agreement between the school district's finance corporation and the school district and a biennially renewable participation agreement between the school district and the Kentucky School Facilities Construction Commission the tax-exempt bonds rated AA3 by Moody's were able to be issued to finance needed improvements and renovations at one of the school district's high schools.