With the innate ability to strike judges and jurors as personable while tenaciously defending clients' interests, Ethan focuses his practice in commercial litigation. While clerking for United States Magistrate Judge Crystal S. Wildeman in the Southern District of Indiana, Ethan absorbed countless hours of litigation proceedings featuring distinguished attorneys and renowned jurists. Drawing from his experience as a judicial clerk, Ethan is able to provide unique insights to behind-the-scenes components of litigation, while also developing creative solutions to maximize client value.

In his free time, you can find Ethan planning his next international escapade. Ethan is an avid local coffee shop connoisseur of any city he finds himself in, and hopes to one day earn his private pilot license.
