Tel: (614) 628-6891

Greg is an experienced appellate lawyer who simplifies complex legal issues with writing that is clear and accessible. He has represented clients at all levels of state and federal courts in a range of substantive areas, including contract, tort, tax, constitutional, and administrative law.

Greg served for eight years as a Master Commissioner for the Supreme Court of Ohio. In that role, he provided comprehensive legal analysis to the court in pending cases and occasionally presided over oral arguments and hearings by referral of the court. He has extensive experience handling cases involving Ohio election laws, the Ohio Public Records Act, and state and local taxation.

Greg served for two years as a law clerk to former Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Ohio Thomas J. Moyer. Greg also has served as an adjunct professor of appellate advocacy at the Ohio State University Moritz College of Law.
