Tel: (303) 301-1702

Josh focuses his work on commercial litigation and tort matters. Prior to joining Dinsmore, Josh gained valuable experience at a tax and estate planning firm, where he specialized in serving high net worth individuals and developed a deep understanding of how to navigate clients through complex legal matters. In addition to his work in estate planning, Josh's hands-on experience through his law school clinic provided him with practical experience in drafting a wide variety of legal documents for his clients. Josh received his J.D. from the University of Colorado Law School and his bachelor's degree in political science from UCLA.
