Cincinnati, OH

Tel: (513) 977-8200

Lorelei is a seasoned commercial litigator with over 15 years of experience delivering results for banking and financial institutions, mortgage servicers, and renewable energy companies. She has successfully handled a wide range of complex matters, including Wage and Hour class actions in California, regulatory investigations involving state attorneys general, lender liability claims, title disputes, and contested bankruptcy and foreclosure proceedings.

As a proven leader and strategist, Lorelei brings a valuable in-house perspective gained from advising both Fortune 500 companies and high-growth startups. Her in-house experience gives her a deep understanding of the daily challenges clients face and the importance of practical strategies that align legal solutions with business goals.

She offers strategic guidance on litigation, regulatory compliance, data privacy, and go-to-market initiatives. Lorelei excels at aligning legal strategies with business objectives, helping clients mitigate risk and drive innovation in fast-paced, tech-forward environments.

Outside the office, Lorelei is a dedicated volleyball mom, often found courtside cheering on her sons throughout both school and club seasons.
