Ravika Rameshwar is a distinguished legal professional renowned for her experience in complex litigation and insurance coverage matters. With a dynamic practice, she is recognized for her ability to navigate intricate legal issues to provide clients with strategic counsel.

She specializes in handling a wide array of litigation files from inception to resolution. Her practice encompasses a broad variety of cases, including commercial matters, contractual disputes, product liability, real estate litigation, premise liability, catastrophic injuries, and professional liability. A seasoned litigator, she is well-versed in practicing before state and federal courts, as well as in multi-district litigation.

In her insurance coverage practice, her proficiency extends to advising on coverage defenses under various policies, monitoring underlying litigation, prosecuting or defending declaratory judgment actions, and skillfully handling bad-faith claims. Her past successes include notable achievements in litigated coverage denials and effectively limiting extra-contractual damages.

Ravika's practice is characterized by a client-centric approach, and tailoring legal strategies to meet the unique needs and objectives of her clients.
