Tel: (412) 288-5884

Robyn focuses her practice on commercial litigation, with particular experience in litigation involving real estate and construction related matters, landlord-tenant matters, ownership disputes, tax assessments and title insurance related matters. She is a problem solver whose clients appreciate her experience and strategic approach to find litigation alternatives or settlement avenues for businesses and individual clients. Robyn has represented clients in state and federal trial courts, as well as before administrative tribunals and arbitration venues.

Robyn also has substantial experience in real estate transactions, where she has counseled businesses and individuals on all types of real estate matters including acquisitions and dispositions, leasing, construction, property management, landlord/tenant matters, and the issuance and of title claims. As a Pennsylvania licensed title agent, Robyn is able to oversee all aspects of commercial and residential real estate transactions.

Prior to joining Dinsmore, she clerked for Judge Thomas McAvoy in the Northern District of New York. She received her J.D. from Albany Law School, where she also served as Executive Editor for the Albany Law Journal of Science and Technology.
