Sarah is an experienced business litigator, licensed in both Ohio and Kentucky. Her practice regularly involves matters in federal and state courts throughout the Greater Cincinnati Area (Hamilton, Butler, Clermont and Warren County, Ohio, and Campbell, Boone, and Kenton County, Kentucky). Sarah has a proven record of success in jury and bench trials, ADR, and appeals involving issues of breach of contract, fraud and deceptive trade practices, shareholder disputes, non-compete agreement disputes, trade secret disputes, interference with contract or economic advantage, arbitration, and employment disputes.

In addition to business litigation, Sarah's practice involves complex trust and estate disputes. She has handled many cases involving questions of testamentary capacity and undue influence, as well as questions of trustee fiduciary obligations. She is presently co-chair of the Northern Kentucky Bar Association Probate and Estate Section.
