Lexington, KY
Tel: (859) 425-1091

Spencer focuses his practice on commercial litigation, bankruptcy, and restructuring. Assisting organizations of all sizes, he is experienced guiding clients through complex issues, helping them achieve favorable outcomes with consideration of their time, resources, and financial situations. This includes counseling clients on resolving conflicts at every stage, from early guidance on sound business practices to finding solutions through disputes, civil actions, and arbitration. Spencer provides strategic advice to help clients achieve their desired results efficiently and effectively. He also counsels clients on the many aspects of insolvency situations, including litigation, claims practice, avoidance actions, and financial workouts. He helps corporate clients reach their objectives through measures such as the purchase and sale of assets, foreclosure, renegotiation, and reorganization.

Previously, Spencer worked as a judicial law clerk. This experience provided firsthand knowledge of the inner workings of federal courts, which he regularly leverages to attain clients' objectives.
