Tom is an experienced trial attorney, focusing on complex commercial litigation, and a trusted business adviser. He strives to make a difference for clients and create innovative solutions to their most complicated challenges and problems.

He has substantial experience prosecuting and defending business litigation cases, including automotive supply chain controversies, manufacturing disputes, real estate development and leasing, construction-related conflicts, sales representative commission claims, business stakeholder separations, and intellectual property matters.

A native of metro-Detroit, Tom regularly counsels clients concerning automotive supply contracts, threatened supply chain disruptions, supplier transitions, tooling transfers, and related lien claims. When litigation is the only option, he has significant first chair jury trial and arbitration experience.
