Tel: (513) 639-9231

Tina brings nearly four decades of experience in the real estate industry to her legal practice, including extensive work in title insurance and closings. As a licensed title agent, she brings added expertise and insight to her work in real estate transactions and development matters. Her practice encompasses all aspects of commercial and residential real estate, real estate development, construction and commercial lending, title insurance, and real estate taxation. She also advises clients on condominium and homeowner association matters and general corporate issues related to real estate.

Tina has been a go-to adviser for real estate businesses and organizations throughout the Greater Cincinnati area for years. In the region and beyond, she has advised homebuilders, developers, financial institutions, and community associations who trust her practicality and insights when managing complex real estate financing and title matters. Tina presents on these and other real estate topics for professional and community organizations regularly.

Tina has been recognized by Best Lawyers for real estate law every year since 2019 and for community association law since 2022. Her professional involvement includes participation in the Cincinnati Academy of Leadership for Lawyers (CALL), Class XII, and service on the Board of Admissions for the State of Ohio.
